

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 16, 1996

SUBJECT: HB 2369 - SB 2483

This bill, if enacted, provides that unemancipated minors may not sue their parents for negligence.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be a cost avoidance to local governments to the extent that any such suits that may have been filed in the absence of this bill will not be filed. To our knowledge, no such suits have reached the courts in Tennessee. The amount of such cost avoidance cannot be determined but is estimated to be not significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
